

Lord,

Thank You for the story You've laid on my heart. Thank You for the talents and abilities You've given me. Thank You for bringing me this far.

I surrender my story to You and submit to Your will. Lead me in the way You want me to go and prepare the path before me. You know better than I, and You have a plan for me and my book far greater than any I could imagine. Give me peace and courage as I embark on this journey, and help me to rely on You no matter what.

All the glory and honor belongs to You alone.

In Christ's name, amen.
